C., arriving there just as the commencement exercises were closing. They were escorted to the college by Miss Margaret Allen, daughter of Mr. S. M. Allen, cashier of the Farmers Bank. After rendering a couple of selections they returned to the Farmers Bank with the M. M. I. cadets in line. About 12:00 o'clock the party moved on to Cynthiana.

—There will be a Community Service, Sunday morning, at the Methodist church for the cadets of M. M. I. The Baccalaureate Sermon will be delivered by Rev. W. W. Morton, of the Presbyterian church. Subject, "A Dreamer of Dreams." All the other pastors of the town will take part. The musical program will be under the direction of Mrs. D. P. Jones. —The commencement exercises of the M. C. was continued Monday at 10:09 a. m., with Class Day exercises on the campus, which were enjoyed by all present. At 3:00 p. m. a tennis tournament was enjoyed by those who attended. At 8:00 p. m. a large audience was present at the annual concert in the College Auditorium, which was good. No graduating class was ever more attractive or put up a better appearance on the stage than the class of 1920. After a short musical program the Literary Address was delivered by Judge Chas. Kerr, of Lexington. His address was largely to the class, as it should have been. His address was not long, but very good. After this Dr. C. C. Fisher, President of the College, awarded the diplomas and medals, reading the Honor Roll for the year. The following young ladies received special prizes: Miss Margaret Layson, Honors of Senior Class; Miss Lois Ingels, Neatness; Miss Bush Allen, Cheerfulness; Miss Lillian Holmes, best carriage; Miss Helen Yun, Scholarship of School and best English student; Miss Hazel Mosley, Most Courteous; Miss Helen Hawkins, best All-Round Girl; Miss Gladys Lanham, Most Dependable; Miss Hazel Sherritt, Sincerity.
